There are so many to thank from our journey this year. This is my third year as Yearbook adviser, and this, by far, has been the best year yet. The yearbook staff needs a big pat on the back because of their hard work. In the past, we didn't have enough pictures! This year, we almost have too many! That's great! This year, even despite our struggling economy and many ads not being renewed, our team earned us enough to slash our book prices! I am so proud of them! And I hope they are proud of their book.

A special thanks goes to Kassie Deedrick, our president, who diligently worked on the yearbook pages and brought out her design abilities. She really has a talent there.

I want to thank Lori Neathery, Zach Roberts, and Clayton Duff for driving on Ad Day! Thanks for helping us out! Without your wheels, we would not have been able to do a color book!

I want to thank Karen Neumann for donating a day to all of us and helping edit the cookbook! We had fun that day!

Thank you to yearbook crew - you guys rock! A special thanks to those who helped design the book - Kassie, Jon Brashear, Tracy Funk, & Shelby Haynes.

Thanks to Cheryl Jones, my constant connection for yearbook over in the high school. She always has the answers and goes above and beyond the call.

Thanks to John & Carey Cox, our Jostens reps.

Thanks to all our advertisers. Without you, we wouldn't be able to do this book.

Sincerely, Joslyn Keathley

The values, fashion and personal vitality of the Obama family resonate with Americans. Public interest in the first family rivals that of the interest in the Kennedy family in the 1960s.

Barack Obama makes history as the first African-American to win the presidency of the United States. The former Illinois senator promises an era of change that captures the imagination of voters nationwide.
